

testify before Stricker, Toolan and David, and it was in the court house in New Brunswick.

Q How long a session was it, do you recall?

A I imagine it was,- I cannot tell exactly; I have it down in my little diary and I hope you will - will you all go over this with Mrs. Stevens and check it over?

Q Yes. I think that's all unless you have something else.

A There is one or two little things I just wanted to say to you, that is that when they questioned me over in New Brunswick they asked me to sit out in another room, adjoining the room that I was questioned in, and I remained in there, oh, I should say for an hour as nearly as I can tell. While I was in there a woman came in and they told her to wait in there. Well, she remained in that room with me for three quarters of an hour or more, and whether it was Mrs. Gibson or not I do not know. From Mrs. Gibson's pictures to-day I imagine this woman was slighter and possibly younger than Mrs. Gibson and she was poorly dressed, not tall, and at the time I thought she might possibly be of some foreign extraction, but I wouldn't want to say as to that.
